

Information about Authors (According to the order of Articles)

Adriana Zabłocka-Abi Yaghi – PhD in Economics. She is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Economics of University of Gdansk, Poland. Her research field of interest is the European integration process, especially the EU competition policy. Author and co-author of articles on antitrust, state aid and international economics issues. Participant of research projects on foreign direct investments and firms' innovation activity.

Moritz Pieper – PhD, he is a Researcher in the Eastern Europe/Eurasia division of the German Institute for International and Security Affairs (Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik). Before that, he was a lecturer in International Relations at the University of Salford, Manchester, UK. He holds a PhD from the University of Kent and has completed his postgraduate studies in Canterbury, Moscow, and Brussels.

Martijn Lak – PhD, he is a Senior Lecturer and Researcher, specializing in Dutch-German relations, modern German history, military history, the Second World War and the early phase of European integration. He holds a PhD from Erasmus University Rotterdam, and he regularly publishes in national and international journals. He is editor-in-chief of “The Journal of Slavic Military Studies” and Corresponding Member of the “Journal of Military History”.

Anna Llanos-Antczak – PhD. She is an Associated Professor and a Vice-rector of the University of Economics and Human Sciences in Warsaw, Poland. She holds an MA in international relations as well as English formal linguistics from the University of Warsaw. She worked in the Ministry of Defence, US Embassy (Defence Attaché Office) and Polish Senate. She was granted NATO Defence College Eisenhower Scholarship in 2016. She is a member of Business Centre Club, Euro-Atlantic Association, MENSA International and Advisory Board at the International Institute of Engineers and Researchers. She was presented Franklin Award and Meritorious Honour Award of the United States Department of State. She was also awarded National Education Committee Medal granted by the Minister of National Education in 2013 and Bronze Medal for Long Service in the field of Science and Academic Education granted by the President of the Republic of Poland in 2015. She is an author of over 100 publications (monographs and articles) related to international relations and security with the focus on the European Union published in international publishing houses (e.g. Palgrave MacMillan) and high impact factor journals (e.g. Europe-Asia Studies, Korean Journal of Defence Analysis, Defence and Security Analysis, Defence and Strategy).

Mladen Karadzovski – PhD, he is an Associate Professor at Law Faculty at “St. Kliment Ohridski” University – Bitola (Republic of North Macedonia). Thematic editor of the scientific quarterly “Studia Europejskie – Studies in European Affairs”. Doctor of public administration, areas of scientific research: Public Administration, Administrative Cooperation between the European States, European Integration of Macedonia and Western Balkans, Institutions of European Union, Enlargement Policy of the European Union, Regional Policy of the European Union, Common Foreign and Security Policy of the European Union, Cross-Border Cooperation, Local and Regional Development, Instruments for Pre-Accession. Managing Editor in Journal of Liberty and International Affairs and Co-founder in the Institute for Research and European Studies. Participant at many international scientific conferences, international projects and author and co-author of numerous publications. Realized several mobilities as a lecturer at foreign Universities through Erasmus+ Program, CEEPUS Program, SIGMA Program, etc.

Goran Ilik – PhD, he is an Associate Professor at Law faculty at “St. Kliment Ohridski” University – Bitola (Republic of North Macedonia). Member of the Scientific Board of the quarterly “Studia Europejskie – Studies in European Affairs”. Currently, he is a Dean of the Law Faculty. His scientific interests encompasses: law and politics of the EU, human rights, individual liberty, European federalism, Political theories etc. Also he is author of the books: Europe at the crossroads: The Treaty of Lisbon as a basis of European Union international identity and EUtopia: the international political power of the EU in the process of ideologization of the post-American world. Dr. Goran Ilik is co-founder of the Institute for Research and European Studies – Bitola and Editor-in-Chief of the international academic journal “Journal of Liberty and International Affairs” (www.e-jlia.com).

Jacek Pietrucha – Professor at the University of Economics in Katowice, head of the Department of Business Cycles and Economic Growth. Research interests: European monetary integration, the financial system and the real sphere of the economy, economic growth with particular emphasis on technical progress and productivity in the conditions of internationalization of their transfer channels. In the years 2008–2016 manager of the educational project financed by the National Bank of Poland “Functioning Mechanisms of the Eurozone”.

Katarzyna Kosior – PhD in Economics, she is an Assistant Professor at the Food Industry Economics Department at the Institute of Agricultural and Food Economics – National Research Institute in Warsaw. She is the author of publications on the European Union’s Common Agricultural Policy and on the functioning of the agri-food sector in Poland and in the EU. Her current research focuses on analysing the conditions and effects of digitalisation in agriculture and the food industry.

Adam A. Ambroziak – PhD in Economics, Professor at the Warsaw School of Economics; Head of Postgraduate Programme in Administration and Management, Head of Postgraduate Programme in Public Aid. Statistical and thematic editor of the scientific quarterly “Studia Europejskie – Studies in European Affairs”. Author of over 100 scientific publications and analyses on EU economic policy, state aid policy, and on the EU internal market; lecturer and trainer in European economic integration and in European lobbying; actively involved in Poland’s EU association, accession negotiations and in the adjustment of the Polish legal system and economy to the provisions of the Europe Agreement; currently taking part in the decision-making process in the EU in the field of competitiveness and growth; lecturer at the Warsaw School of Economics, Centre of Europe at the University of Warsaw, University of Gdańsk, National School of Public Administration in Poland, and at the Polish Institute of International Affairs; visiting researcher and professor at the University of Glasgow and University of Economics in Bratislava.

Michał Skorzycki – PhD, he is a graduate of the University of Łódź, holding the position of assistant professor at University of Social Sciences in Łódź. His research interests involve fields of sociology of politics and international relations, particularly, external relations of the European Union, problems of nationalism and national identity, as well as internal politics and democratic transformation of the Czech Republic.