Contributors

1. Artur Adamczyk – Associate Professor at the Centre for Europe University of Warsaw. Research interests: EU in international relations; EU decision-making process, Mediterranean Policy of the EU. Author of numerous publications on these topics. Lecturer at European universities: University of Siena, University of Thessaloniki, Marmara University, Istambul University, Universidad Autonoma de Granada. Artur Adamczyk can be contacted at a.adamczyk@uw.edu.pl

2. Olga Barburska - Associate Professor at the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw. Member of the Polish European Community Studies Association (PECSA). Research interests: women’s participation in political power in the European Union, Eastern policy of the EU, history of European integration. Olga Barburska can be contacted at o.barburska@uw.edu.pl

3. Taras Budzinsky – Research Fellow at Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. Doctoral dissertation concerned the development of the European Communities in the late 1980s and early 1990s and their transformation to the European Union. Main research interests: European Studies; the EU member states’ policy towards Ukraine and Eastern European countries; modern migration processes and border issues. Taras Budzinsky can be contacted at tarasbud@yahoo.com

4. Andriy Didukh – graduate of Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. Master’s degree. Since 2003 scientific research worker at the Institute of European Integration at Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. Scientific interests: modern international relations, Ukrainian-Polish cross-border cooperation, relations between Ukraine and Canada. Andriy Didukh can be contacted at andridi@yahoo.com

5. Magdalena Drouet - PhD student at the Warsaw School of Economics in the Collegium of World Economy. Graduate of the Faculty of Economic Sciences, University of Warsaw and the Faculty of Italian Philology, University of Warsaw. She specializes in development economics and integration, European Union trade policy and economic transition in developing countries. Scholarship holder at Catholic University of Louvain and University of Roma “La Sapienza”. Experienced employee of the UN System. She also specializes in the preparation and implementation of EU-funded projects on Higher Education. Magdalena Drouet can be contacted at muirne22@hotmail.com

6. Przemysław Dubel, – Assistant Professor at the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw; Project Manager at the Faculty of Management, University of Warsaw; Adviser to Government Representative on European Information. Specialist in developing active forms of employment and supporting the labour market, expert in management and development of projects co-financed by the European Regional Development Fund and European Social Fund. Przemysław Dubel can be contacted at pdubel@wz.uw.edu.pl

7. Bogdan Góralczyk – Professor at the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw. Former Ambassador of Poland to Thailand, the Philippines and Republic of the Union of Myanmar (2003-2008). Head of Cabinet of the Polish Foreign Minister (2001-2003) and long-term diplomat in Hungary (1991-1998); prolific writer, author of many books and articles in Polish, English and

8. Bohdan Hud - Professor, since 2000 Director of the European Integration Institute of Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. Visiting professor at the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw and Institute of European Studies, Jagiellonian University. Expert in Ukrainian-Polish relations and conflicts in 19th and 20th century, and Eastern dimension of European integration. Author of numerous publications devoted to these topics, including: “The Russian factor in EU-Ukrainian relations”, The East as a Partner of the European Union, 2005; “Main issues of labor migration in Ukraine”, Migration – the value added?, “The border issue in contemporary Ukrainian-Polish relations”, Socio-economic Cohesion and the Modernization of Cross-border Regions, 2008. Bohdan Hud can be contacted at bohdanhud@yahoo.com

9. Roman Kalytchak - Associate Professor at the Department of International Relations and Diplomacy, Faculty of International Relations, Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. His research interests include the European Union’s external relations; EU’s influence in the post-Soviet space; European regionalism and Ukrainian regional governance; internalization of higher education. He has published a book and many articles on these topics. Visiting scholar at European and North American universities: Central European University (Hungary), University of Bologna, University of Tartu, University of Toronto, University of Turin, Woodrow Wilson Center for International Scholars (Washington DC, USA). Roman Kalytchak can be contacted at kalytchak@hotmail.com

10. Marta Malska - Professor, Head of the Department of Tourism of Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. Her research interests include management and marketing of service industries, fundamentals of tourism, tourist resources of Ukraine, international tourism and cross-border cooperation. Author of numerous publications on these topics, including: Management of tourism (2004), Spatial systems of services (2010), International tourism and services (2008), Hotel business (2012). Marta Malska can be contacted at malskym@ukr.net

11. Dariusz Milczarek - Professor, Director of the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw. Editor-in-Chief of quarterly “Studia Europejskie” (European Studies) and Editor of Yearbook of Polish European Studies. Main fields of interest: history of European integration, European Union’s foreign/security policy, international position and role of the European Union. Visiting Professor at: University of Maastricht (The Netherlands); University of Granada (Spain); University of Hull (U.K.); European University Institute in Florence (Italy), University of Lviv (Ukraine). Author of over 80 different publications, including: The European Union in the Contemporary World (Polish edition in 2005; Ukrainian edition in 2007) and Position and Role of the European Union in International Relations. Selected Theoretical Aspects (2003). Dariusz Milczarek can be contacted at d.milczarek@uw.edu.pl

12. Małgorzata Pacek - Assistant Professor at the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw. Ph.D. in Political Science, graduate of Institute of Political Science, Jagiellonian University, specializing in international relations. Topic of doctoral dissertation: Origins and activities of the East Prussian Landsmanschaft. Research interests: migration policy of the EU and its member states, integration of immigrants, particularly from different cultures, Polish-German relations, landsmanschafts, expellee movement in Germany. Consul at Polish Consulate in Hamburg, 1999-2003. Małgorzata Pacek can be contacted at m.pacek@uw.edu.pl

13. Svitlana Pysarenko – Professor, Department of Economic Relations of Ivan Franko National University of Lviv. Her research interests include the world economy, economies in transition, Ukrainian-Polish cross-border cooperation. Author of numerous publications on these topics. Svitlana Pysarenko can be contacted at prosvetka@mail.ru.

14. Ihor Todorov – Professor at the Department of International Relations and Foreign Policy of Donetsk National University (Ukraine). Graduated from the Faculty of History of Donetsk State University in 1981. Defended PhD dissertation at Lomonosov Moscow State University in 1992. Doctoral research at Kyiv National Taras Shevchenko University, 2002-2005. In 2007 he defended his postdoctoral thesis "European and Euro-Atlantic integration of Ukraine: national and regional dimensions (1991-2004)." Deputy Director of the Research and Information Center for International Security and Euro-Atlantic cooperation at Donetsk National University, a member of a specialized scientific council on historic sciences. The scope of his scientific interests covers: foreign and security policy of Ukraine, in particular relations with the EU and NATO. Chairman of the Euro-Atlantic section, the head of the Donetsk regional department of Ukrainian European Studies Association, Deputy Chairman of the Coordinating Council of All-Ukrainian Civic League "Ukraine-NATO", a member of the Shevchenko Scientific Society (Donetsk branch), Vice-Chairman of Donetsk Regional NGO “Donetsk Institute for Social Research and Political Analysis”, a member of the working group "Foreign and Security Policy" at the Public Expert Council at the Ukrainian division of Committee on cooperation between Ukraine and the EU. Ihor Todorov can be contacted at ihor.todorov@gmail.com

16. Anna Wróbel – Assistant Professor at the Institute of International Relations, University of Warsaw. Ph.D. in Political Science. Her doctoral dissertation is on the policy of liberalization of international trade in services. Member of the Polish Association of International Studies. Research interests: international trade in services; processes of international trade liberalization, in particular liberalization of international trade in services; food security; international trade in agri-food commodities; economic dimension of globalization; regional economic integration; EU trade policy; World Trade Organisation. Author of numerous publications on these topics. Anna Wróbel can be contacted at awrobel@uw.edu.pl

17. Jakub Zajączkowski – Assistant Professor at the Institute of International Relations, University of Warsaw (IIR UW). Ph.D. in Political Science. Member of Polish-African Society and Polish Association of International Studies. Head of European Centre for Contemporary India Research and Studies, IIR UW. Research Fellow, Polish Foundation for Science. Awarded Scholarship by Minister of Higher Education. Research interests: international relations in the Asia-Pacific region, foreign and security policy of India, developing countries. Visiting Fellow at Indiana University, Bloomington, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Peking University and Katholieke Universiteit Leuven. Visiting Professor at over 20 European and Asian universities, including Tribhuvan University, Fudan University, Western Australia University, Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris, Oxford University, Heidelberg University. Member of the Research Board of the European University Centre AT Peking University and a member of the following research networks: Europa-China Academic Network, Asia-Europe Human Security Network. Author of two books (India in International Relations, Warsaw 2008; The EU in International Relations, Warsaw 2006), co-editor of East Asia and South Asia in International Relations, Warsaw 2011, and author of over 50 articles published in scientific periodicals. Jakub Zajączkowski can be contacted at kubazaj@hot.pl

18. Kamil Zajączkowski – Assistant Professor at the Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw. Ph.D. in Political Science. His doctoral dissertation is on the evolution of the relationship between the EU and Sub-Saharan countries. Member of the Polish-African Association and Polish Association of International Studies. Research interests: EU in international relations; EU policy towards Africa, Asia and Latin America; development and humanitarian policy; North-South relations; development economics, Polish foreign policy towards non-European countries. Author of over 50 publications on these topics. His recent major studies in English: “Development Policy as an Instrument of EU External Policy” in Yearbook of Polish European Studies, vol. 13/2010; “EU Development Policy: A Coherent Model or Illusory Success” in K.Pędziwiatr, P. Kugiel, A. Dańda (eds.), Current Challenges to Peacebuilding Efforts and Development Assistance, Tischner European University, Krakow 2011. Visiting Professor at over 20 European and Asian universities, including Airlangga University (Indonesia), Universitas Gadjah Mada (Indonesia), Xiamen University (China), Universidad Autonoma de Madrid; Istambul University; Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris; Vienna University, Universidad Autonoma de Granada. Kamil Zajączkowski can be contacted at kamilzaj@hot.pl or k.zajaczkowski@uw.edu.pl