

International Scientific Conference

Finland in Europe –security, political, economic and social dimension

Warsaw, 25 May 2023

Place: University of Warsaw Library
Dobra 56/66, room 256

organised

by Centre for Europe University of Warsaw and partners:
Centre for International Relations and WKB Lawyers

The conference is co-financed in the internal grant system under Action IV.3.1 financed from the "Excellence Initiative - Research University" (IDUB) programme.

Opening Ceremony

10.15 –10.45

Professor Kamil Zajączkowski (University of Warsaw)
Prof. Jarosław Suchoples (University of Jyväskylä)

Panel 1

10.45-12.00

Finland - Security and International Activity

Chair: Professor Kamil Zajączkowski (University of Warsaw)

Prof. Jarosław Suchoples (University of Jyväskylä)

In the Shadow of the Eastern Neighbour. Finland in the Security Policy of Russia and the Soviet Union from Peter the Great to Contemporary Times

Prof. Stefan Lundqvist (Swedish Defence University)

A Convincing Finnish Move: Implications for State Identity of Persuading Sweden to Jointly Bid for NATO Membership

Prof. Tuomo Melasuo (University of Tampere)

Finland in the Mediterranean

Coffee break

12.00 – 12.15

Panel 2

12.15– 13.30

Finland - Wealth, Education and Happiness

Chair: Prof. Jarosław Suchoples (University of Jyväskylä)

Prof. Adam A. Ambroziak (SGH Warsaw School of Economics)

State Aid Trends in Finland and Poland — Similarities and Differences

Prof. Jan Otto Andersson (Åbo Akademi University)

Explaining Finnish Economic and Social Success – And Happiness

Prof. Marko Ala-Fossi (Tampere University)

*Prioritizing National Competitiveness over Support for Democracy?
Finnish Media Policy in the 21st Century*

Marcin Fronia (Polish Academy of Science)

The Finnish innovation phenomenon: from an education model to an information society

13.30– 15.00

Lunch